| Mombazillac, Bergerac, France. 2009 | 20.00 |
| This is a fabulous dessert wine with a well deserved reputation. It's a blend of three grape varieties, Sémillon, Sauvignon and a little Muscadelle. An extremely elegant wine from the home of dessert wines Monbazillac. The naturally occurring sugar results in it being sweet, but not overtly so. It is unctuously luscious with a great backbone of fine acidity for a fresh finish. | |

| 102 | Morey St Denis 1er Cru 'Les Millandes' | 40.00 |
| | Domaine Maurice Gagnon, 2005
The nose is thoroughly distinguished and of great complexity (coffee, cherry, raspberry, violet ...), all underpinned by its thread of elegance. With fine balance between strength of body and expression of fruit, it knows how to soften its tannins and offer generous fleshiness. | |
| 103 | Chambolle Musigny 1er Cru 'Les Baudes' | 40.00 |
| | Domaine Maurice Gagnon, 2005
Glowing a rich purple, this wine has a forceful red fruit nose. In the mouth it is much more suave, very generous, well balanced and shows plenty of energy and good acidity. The excellent finish is rejuvenated with a renewed burst of energy. | |
| 41 | Nuits-St-Georges 1er Cru 'Rue de Chaux' | 100.00 |
| | Domaine Jean Chauvenet, Burgundy. 2003
The wine has great richness and intensity, with the concentration derived from the careful management of old vines. On the nose it shows aromas of ripe, dark berry fruit with an intensely earthy character. On the palate it is fresh and vibrant with rich, full and robust raspberry and strawberry fruit flavours, firm structure, and a long finish. | |
| 42 | Nuits-St-Georges 1er Cru 'Les Vaucrains' | 110.00 |
| | Domaine Jean Chauvenet, Burgundy. 2003
An exceptional vintage; Les Vaucrains is arguably the finest vineyard in Nuits-St-Georges and winemaker Christian Drag has certainly extracted all its potential on this occasion. It is a truly complete wine with rich fruit and excellent balance. | |
| 43 | Le Corton Grand Cru | 115.00 |
| | Domaine Follin-Arbelet. 2003
Light ruby red colour. Opens with notes of sour cherries and a meaty quality. Eventually develops more 'normal' cherry, floral, meat and mineral aromas. Medium bodied with cherry and red fruit flavours; also something a little vegetal - though in a good way. Balanced, with a nice amount of fruit carrying through to the finish. | |
| 44 | Nuits-St-Georges 1er Cru 'Les Vaucrains' | 115.00 |
| | Robert Chevillon, Burgundy. 2003
This is one of the best estates in Nuits-St-Georges and produces rich, yet individual wines made from very low yields. These are usually extremely age-worthy examples and a great reference point for Nuits-St-Georges. This wine presents Tobacco, beef, stock, plum and blackberry. | |
| 45 | Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru 'Lavaux St-Jaques' | 117.00 |
| | Domaine Maume, Burgundy. 2003
Aromatically understated. Round and balanced; another wine with hints of vanilla. Long and lingering. Indeed very long. | |
| 46 | Gevrey Chambertin 'Clos St Jaques' 1er Cru | 115.00 |
| | Robert Chevillon, Burgundy. 2003
There's a hint of earth and spice to the cherry fruit nose. The palette is fresh with lovely purity and elegance to the fruit, as well some earthy, 'sappy' notes and a slight metallic tingle on the finish. Lovely expressive fruit here. | |

- 47 Nuits-St-Georges 1er Cru 'Pruliers' 145.00
 Domaine Jean Grivot, Burgundy. 2003
 There is a lovely depth to the rich mid-palate of Jean Griivot's Nuits-St Georges Les Pruliers 1er Cru, which includes both red and black fruit notes leading to a precise well-delineated finish, typical of recent Grivot magic.
- 48 Clos de Vougeot Grand Cru 145.00

 Hand picked, 80 to 100% de-stemmed depending on the vintage. Vatting period of about 15 to 18 days, in open oak vats with a low temperature (controlled by thermo-regulation). Fine and fully bodied, lively yet with mouthfilling fruit. Lamarche's Clos de Vougeot GC is a very complete wine which combines ripe fruit with a fresh vivacity.
- 49 Bonnes Mares Grand Cru 145.00
 Drouhin-Laroze, Burgundy. 2003
 "More vegetal and meaty on the nose. Lovely top notes of mocha, too. Very rich, and some obviously thick skins, too. A real mouthful." JancisRobinson.com
- 50 Vosne Romanee 1er Cru 'Les Suchots' 155.00
 Domine Jean Grivot, Burgundy. 2003
 One of the great 1er Cru Vineyards in Vosne adjoining two Grand Cru's. Richebourg and Romanee St Vivant. This is very scented wine with real harmony. The volume and breadth of fruit create a real mouth filling sensation and the long sweet fruit finish helps to confirm that this is a wine of great distinction.
- 51 Mazis-Chambertin Grand Cru 160.00
 Domaine Maume, Burgundy. 2003
 Medium, medium-plus colour - some purple reflections. Despite the description of the oak regime here, this starts deep and toasty. A swirl releases dark-skinned fruit and over time it transforms to a more floral and spicy effect. The texture is rather good with some fat and plenty of well-covered and well-mannered tannin. There's a burst of interest in the mid-palate helped by the acidity. Finally there's the nice finish.
- 52 Chambertin Clos de Beze Grand Cru 165.00
 Drouhin-Laroze, Burgundy. 2003
 "Above all it was important not to go for extraction with these 2003s," says Philippe Drouhin. This wine has rich, purple red colour, with magnificently complex aromas (liquorice, violets, earthiness). It is full-bodied, velvety densley fruity, exceptionally elegant and perfectly balanced. "very heady and exciting. thick and sweet at the start and then lots of kirsch effect with a substrate of fine tannins. This should not disappoint." 18/20- JancisRobinson.com
- 53 Clos de Vougeot Grand Cru 170.00
 Domaine Jean Grivot, Burgundy. 2003
 Good full red. Cherry, currant and licorice on the nose, in fact, this is rather tender for a Vougeot, giving an impression of lowish acidity. Chewy finish features sweet, tactile tannins.
- 54 Clos de la Roche Grand Cru 160.00
 Nicolas Potel, Burgundy. 2003
 The nose is deep and more "animale" with red berry fruit, trimmed in a bit of wood spice that dissolves into supple, fresh and attractively textured flavours. Really quite fine for a young Clos de la Roche. (90-92 points, Alen Meadows - Burghound.com - Jan 08)

- 56 La Grand Rue Grand Cru 230.00
 Domaine Franscois Lamarche, Burgundy. 2003
 Primely situated, La Grande Rue Grand Cru vineyard has produced a very sensuous, mouthfilling wine with delicious length and depth. The fruit is plump but with a clear sense of refinement, whilst a beautiful core of minerality runs right through. This is truly an imperial wine.
- 57 Bonnes Mares Grand Cru 400.00
 Georges Roumier, Burgundy. 2003
 Complex with sweet minerals and a hint of mint. A little hot on palate, with a tight and grippy finish.

- 59 Cote Brune - Côte-Rôtie 78.00
Domaine Gilles-Barge. 2003
"Cote Brune possesses a dark ruby/purple color along with an attractive bouquet of grilled herbs, scorched earth, black cherries, and black currants. Deep, medium to full-bodied, long, and robust with the distinctive earthy, leathery character of this estate well-displayed. The 2006 offerings performed better from bottle than they did last year from cask. 90-92 points. Robert Parker."
- 60 Les Becasses - Côte-Rôtie 90.00
M. Chapoutier. 2003
This premium Côte-Rôtie delivers a powerful yet finely-structured wine, introducing intense aromas on the nose (rapsberry, hints of violet, a touch of olive and ""tapenade"", of rosemary and crashed peppercorns) leading to a full- flavoured palate, with an aftertaste of smoky wood, spices and vanilla.

Tise light ruby/garnet-colored 2003 Chateauneuf du Pape offers a heady concoction of kirsch, pepper, seaweed, and salty sea breezes followed by broad plum and cherry flavors, soft tannins, low acidity, and a plump finish. Drink it over the next 8-10 years. Score - 89. R. Parker
- 62 Hermitage Rouge 100.00
M. Sorrel. 2003
Marc's top wine is from 60-year-old vines in the heart of the Méal vineyard, with 10% Marsanne added to the Syrah to add aromatic and textural complexity; a symphony of sweet and savoury flavours, a wine to keep for a decade or more.
- 63 Domaine St Pierre - Cornas 105.00
P. Jaboulet. 2003
Extremely rich, full bodied yet smooth with pleasant cherry scent.
- 64 Monier de Sizeranne - Hermitage Rouge 110.00
M. Chapoutier. 2003
Deep garnet red with purple highlights. Aromas of red fruit (raspberry and black currant) with a hint of licorice. Round and elegant with soft and concentrated tannins, and a long finish.
- 65 Clos de Papes - Chateauneuf Du Pape 110.00
P. Avril 2003
A great success, and possibly the finest wine made here since the monumental 1990 and 1978. Its dense ruby/purple color is matched by an extraordinary perfume of black raspberries, kirsch, blackberries, licorice, incense, and Chinese black tea. There is tremendous intensity on the attack, full body, loads of glycerin, and abundant but sweet tannin. With magnificent purity, richness, and generosity, yet fine delineation. 96-99/100 points. (Robert Parker - Wine Advocate - Dec-2004)
- 66 La Chapelle - Chateauneuf Du Pape 180.00
P. Jaboulet 2003
The finest example of this cuvee since 1990, the 2003 Hermitage La Chapelle (50,000 bottles rather than the normal 96,000+ were produced) possesses an inky/purple color as well as a tremendous bouquet of creme de cassis, crushed flowers, truffles, and licorice. Full-bodied and powerful (15% natural alcohol) with good freshness and definition.
